

Directly buried logging fiber optic cable factory in Democratic Republic of Congo

Congolese Fiber Optic Company (SOCOF SA) has reportedly signed a partnership with the Agency for the Coordination and Monitoring of Collaboration Agreements (APCSC) to deploy ...

As part of Benya Group efforts to lead digital transformation across Africa, Benya Group will deploy a fiber optic network in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC). This project will form the foundation ...

According to the Congolese Ministry of Telecom, the two Chinese companies are experienced in ICT and fiber optic communications, and have worked in markets like Angola and ...

An investigation into the two largest industrial logging companies in the DRC shines a light on threats to the Congo Basin.

"Chinese companies linked to illegal logging and mining in northern DRC" An investigation by EL PAÍS/Planeta Futuro has obtained evidence showing how Chinese-owned companies in northern ...

Given the complexity of this deployment and the need to secure its timetable as well as its investments, Facebook called on Sofrecom to carry out the preliminary study for the construction of a 5,745km ...

Until the Last Log is an in-depth investigation that sheds light on systemic illegalities plaguing the industrial logging sector in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC).

The environmental impacts of logging are exacerbated by governance challenges in DRC's industrial logging sector, which has for years been characterized by significant and systemic reported illegalities.

Successfully building 925km long fiber optic cables that connect from Bangui, the capital of the Central African Republic, Gamboula, the border of Cameroon, and up to Salo, Congo for 14 months

PDF | The aim of this study was to investigate industrial logging in Businga Territory.

Directly buried logging fiber optic cable factory in Democratic Republic of Congo

Web: <https://www.safireschools.co.za>

