

Competence certificate (Electrical Safety Act 1135/2016 Section 56, sub-section 5)) You can use the Certificate of competence to carry out electrical work on dwelling or residential building that is owner ...

SFS 6002 Electrical safety -course is mandatory in Finland for all persons involved in electrical works: installers, managers, assistants etc. The course is valid for 5 years and shall be renewed to maintain ...

Select the class of qualification certificate you are applying for and fill in the contact and invoicing details to the application form and attach needed documents and/or certificates required for the assessment ...

Further information about tests and certificates in Finnish. Some certificates we also offer in English, further information about courses in English.

Certificates of qualification are issued by Henkilö- ja yritysarviointi SETI Oy. In order to be granted a certificate of qualification you must have: passed the electrical safety examination (Electrical safety ...

The training is designed especially for workers arriving in Finland from abroad to complete a specific part of a project. This ensures that participants fully understand and comply with Finnish electrical safety ...

The Electrical Safety Card Training SFS 6002 is a general-purpose electrical safety training. It is a mandatory training required for everyone working with, and maintaining electrical installations, ...

The Finnish electrical safety card (Sähkötyöturvallisuuskortti SFS 6002) is intended for persons working in the maintenance and service of electrical installations, machines and equipment with a voltage of up ...

For now, the form SL1 is used for notifications of lift works. A notification in Swedish or English is submitted with a printable form. A natural person must have sufficient electrical qualifications, or a ...

According to standard SFS 6002 general training of electrical safety hazards and safe working methods should be given to all persons involved in electrical works, a training certificate issued, and the ...

Finland Relay Protection Electrician Certificate

Web: <https://www.safireschools.co.za>

