

Property Rights of Optical Cables for Home Access in Congo

Réseau indépendant entièrement établi sur une propriété sans emprunter ni le domaine public, y compris hertzien, ni une propriété tierce.

On the basis of this plan, it is planned to draw up full feasibility studies for the priority links that make up the national component of the regional CAB project. The beneficiaries of the project are ...

Fiber-optic backbone networks, towers, satellite and microwave links, last-mile connectivity, and network redundancy are needed to improve coverage and reliability.

Today at the Kinshasa Economic Forum, the EIB and BCS signed a warrants agreement that will allow BCS to move forward with their plans to install a new fibre-optic backbone in the ...

Given the complexity of this deployment and the need to secure its timetable as well as its investments, Facebook called on Sofrecom to carry out the preliminary study for the construction of a 5,745km ...

The Code provides for the common management of household property, but, although married women have the right to hold separate property, they remain under the control of their husbands.

The Code provides for the common management of household property, but, although married women have the right to hold separate property, they remain ...

The right to establish and operate telecommunication services and activities is evidenced by an operating license issued by the Regulatory Authority 8 in accordance with the Law on...

Congolese Fiber Optic Company (SOCOF SA) has reportedly signed a partnership with the Agency for the Coordination and Monitoring of Collaboration Agreements (APCSC) to deploy ...

CICEWA seeks to identify the political obstacles to extending affordable access to ICT infrastructure in Africa and to advocate for their removal in order to create a sound platform for sub ...

Property Rights of Optical Cables for Home Access in Congo

Web: <https://www.safireschools.co.za>

